Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 14 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cold, dry and bright on Friday. Fog patches in south.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rain and snow petering out this evening, although a few showers continuing across the north until the early hours. Icy stretches on untreated surfaces. Widespread frost, locally severe in the north. Freezing fog developing in the south.

Friday:
A cold start tomorrow, with fog patches in the south which may be slow to clear. Otherwise a fine and dry day with largely sunny skies, but feeling cold.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Rain with snow on high ground spreading east on Saturday, drier later. A few showers on Sunday and Monday, perhaps some longer spells of rain in the west.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.